Thief in the park

*Mary Marten reporting for
The News*

Police today are looking for a woman who stole a handbag in Jubilee Park last Monday. The thief was a woman of about 25 who was wearing a jacket, jeans and black trainers.

Mrs Beryl Hall of Shear Bank Road, Haslingdon was walking through the park on her way home from work. The weather was bad and it was raining hard. At about 5.40 in the evening Mrs Hall heard a noise.

Someone was following her.

'Before I could turn round,' Mrs Hall said, 'she pushed me to the ground. She then took my handbag and ran down the hill.'

A man from Blackburn, George Adams, was walking his dog in the park. When he saw the robbery, he went to help Mrs Hall.
