

Rights and duties

1. Here are some citizens' rights and responsibilities. Decide whether they refer to a duty or to a right

- a. to be equal before the law
- b. to be free to move
- c. to be free to tell your opinion
- d. to be tolerant
- e. to have a job
- f. to have access to education
- g. to have access to health care
- h. to have somewhere to live
- i. to help people
- j. to live in dignity
- k. to marry and have a family
- l. to obey the law
- m. to own property
- n. to pay taxes
- o. to protect the environment
- p. to respect others
- q. to respect others' rights and freedoms
- r. to respect the flag of your country
- s. to tell the truth
- t. to vote

2. Match the pictures with the correspondent statements.

F

G

H

I

J

- a) All are equal before the law and are entitled without any discrimination to equal protection of the law.
- b) Everyone has the right to a fair trial by an independent and impartial court.
- c) Everyone has the right to a standard of living adequate for well-being of himself and of his family, including food, clothing and housing.
- d) Everyone has the right to education.
- e) Everyone has the right to freedom of opinion and expression.

- f) Everyone has the right to organise peaceful meetings or to take part in meetings in a peaceful way.
- g) Everyone has the right to work and to protection against unemployment.
- h) No one has the right to put you in prison and to keep you in there, unjustly, or without good reason.
- i) No one shall be held in slavery or servitude.
- j) No one should be subjected to torture or to cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment.