

GRAMMAR PRACTICE WITH SO, SUCH, TOO, ENOUGH AND COMPARISONS!

Task 1

Match the two halves to make correct sentences.

Example: The pianist played so badly that ...<sup>g</sup>....

- |                                          |                                             |
|------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------|
| (The pianist played so badly that .....) | a I don't know how you can stand him.       |
| 1 She was so clever that .....           | b I don't have to do much to keep it clean. |
| 2 The food was so bad (that) .....       | c nobody could eat it.                      |
| 3 She's got so many clothes .....        | d his teeth will rot.                       |
| 4 It's such a tiny kitchen that .....    | e all the universities wanted her.          |
| 5 He eats so much sugar that .....       | f she never wears the same thing twice.     |
| 6 He talks so much rubbish .....         | (g the audience walked out.)                |

Task 2

Complete the following sentences with too, enough, very, so or such.

- It's much ..... hot in here – turn the heating down.
- If you've had ..... food, I'll take the plates away.
- She doesn't speak Spanish well ..... to order a meal on her own.
- The food was much ..... salty to eat.
- That's a ..... beautiful piece of music. What is it?
- I don't understand native speakers because they speak ..... quickly.
- You're not writing quickly ..... – the test is nearly over.
- I don't have ..... room in the house to put you up.
- The film was ..... good. I wouldn't mind seeing it again.
- We're ..... different characters I don't know how we'll manage to get on.

Task 3

2 Underline the correct phrase in the following sentences.

- We had to pay a high such price / such a high price for coffee in London.
- Passing my driving test was such a / a so good feeling!
- He had such / such a bad breath no woman would go near him.
- We had a such / such an awful day that we wouldn't do it again.
- She loved him such / so deeply she couldn't bear it when he was away.
- There were so few / such a few people there, they nearly cancelled the performance.
- The film was such a / so scary I nearly left the cinema.
- I had so many / so much things to do I didn't know where to start.
- It was a so / such a lovely day we took a picnic to the park.
- There was so much / such noise I could hardly hear myself think.

Task 4

Complete the second sentence so that it has a similar meaning to the first sentence, using the word given. Do NOT change the word given. You may use between two and five words, including the word given.

- 1 We were caught by surprise by the cold weather.
such
We ..... weather.
- 2 I didn't have the strength to carry the case on my own.
heavy
The case was .....
carry on my own.
- 3 The shelf was too high for me to reach.
tall
I ..... reach the shelf.
- 4 I cried because the film was very sad.
so
The film was .....
cry.
- 5 We can't hear her because her voice is very soft.
softly
She ..... can't hear her.
- 5 John's marks were too low for the university.
high John's marks .....
for the university.
- 7 If there had been fewer people in the queue we would have waited.
so
There ..... in the queue that we decided not to wait.
- 8 He got drunk because the wine in the restaurant was very strong.
strong
The wine ..... he got drunk.
- 9 If this soup was not so hot I could drink it now.
for
This soup is too .....
drink now.
- 10 The ticket was too expensive for us.
enough
We didn't ..... a ticket.