

In this section, you will hear about the rather strict laws and fines Venice has recently introduced.

- Your task will be to write one word in each of the gaps below using the exact words you hear in the recording.
- First, you will have some time to look at the task, and then we will play the whole recording in one piece.

Photo by Gaertringen - Pixabay

0) The Venice police fined the German tourists because they were caught

making

coffee

1. In addition to the €950 fine, the backpackers were also asked to _____ the _____.
2. The police learnt about the offence when it was _____ them by a(n) _____.
3. Some of the laws Venice has introduced – such as the fine for littering, for example – are quite _____ and _____.
4. The offence of _____ carries a fine of €420.
5. Another offence besides walking around in the city in swimsuits that leads to a fine of €200 is not _____ a(n) _____ in public places.
6. Simply _____ a(n) _____ is punishable by €100 in Venice.
7. The mess left by _____ and stray _____ adds up to a £5 million a year cleaning bill in Venice.
8. On account of the enormous number of visitors every year, Venetians have long complained about _____.
9. People who are caught _____ in the _____ are faced with the heaviest fine of €450.
10. Last December, the city also decided to introduce a(n) _____ of up to £10 for short-stay tourists.

(www.bbc.com; www.independent.co.uk)