

Countable - Uncountable & Collective Nouns

Choose the correct answer. Then write if it's countable or uncountable.

- I'd like two single room / rooms for the night. Countable / Uncountable
Is there room / a room for me to sit down? Countable / Uncountable
- It's dangerous for children to play with fire / fires. Countable / Uncountable
Can we light fire / a fire? It's getting dark and cold! Countable / Uncountable
- Italy is a country of great beauties / beauty. Countable / Uncountable
You should see my new house. It's a beauty / beauty. Countable / Uncountable
- You can stay with us. We have a big house. There's always a spare room/rooms. Countable / Uncountable
You can't sit here. There isn't room / a room for you. Countable / Uncountable
- Did you hear that noise / noises? Was it a broken window? Countable / Uncountable
Did you hear noise/ noises during the night? Countable / Uncountable
It's impossible to study in this house. There's too much noise / a noise. Countable / Uncountable
- Is it possible to have some light / a light in this room? It's so dark! Countable / Uncountable
He wanted a cigarette, so he asked me for a light/ some light. Countable / Uncountable

Rewrite the sentences replacing the words in bold with a similar uncountable noun as in the example:

Can you give me some money to buy an ice-cream?
Can you give me two dollars to buy an ice-cream?

- I'm broke! I need more money, so I'm looking for a job.
I'm broke! I need more money, so I'm looking for
- Thank you so much! That's a good suggestion!
Thank you so much! That's good
- Mary had a lot of bags and cases when she went to England.
Mary had a lot of when she went to England.
- You can't take these! They are Paul's table and chairs.
You can't take this! This is Paul's
- What a beautiful view.
What beautiful

Choose the correct form of the verb.

- The police is / are investigating the case of Mr Wales.
- I couldn't believe it! The news was / were very depressing.
- The cattle is / are in the field.
- The audience was / were thrilled with his performance.
- Your hair is / are so shiny and beautiful.
- My family is / are very important to me.
- The committee choose / chooses the new president.
- The herd of cows move / moves fast towards the river.
- The jury has / have not reached a verdict yet!