

Relative pronouns

1- Read the following sentences:

- The driver called the police. The driver had her arrested.
- Rosa Parks is a woman. Her actions gave birth to a one-year-long bus boycott.
- She got on a bus. It was not totally filled when she arrived.

2- For each sentence click on the box corresponding to the antecedent :

- The driver called the police had her arrested.
- Rosa Parks the woman actions gave birth to a one-year-long bus boycott.
- The bus she got on, was not totally filled when she arrived.

3- So now think and answer in French :

Quelle est l'utilité des pronoms relatifs ?

Que permettent-ils ?

A quoi font-ils référence ?

4- Choose the correct proposition :

Who	<input type="text" value="Refers to a date"/>	<input type="text" value="Refers to a person"/>	<input type="text" value="Refers to an object"/>
Which	<input type="text" value="Refers to a moment"/>	<input type="text" value="Refers to places"/>	<input type="text" value="Object, animal, idea"/>
Whose	<input type="text" value="Refers to a person"/>	<input type="text" value="Refers to a possession"/>	<input type="text" value="Refers to a date"/>
That	<input type="text" value="Animals, people,"/>	<input type="text" value="Refers to time"/>	<input type="text" value="Refers to possession"/>
Where	<input type="text" value="Refers to a place"/>	<input type="text" value="Refers to a person"/>	<input type="text" value="Refers to time"/>
When	<input type="text" value="Refers to a place"/>	<input type="text" value="Refers ro a person"/>	<input type="text" value="Refers to time"/>

5-Practice time. Link the two sentences with a relative pronoun. Pay attention to the meaning. You can transform the sentences a little.

- Lincoln was President. Lincoln abolished slavery.

.....

- Billie Holliday sand "Strange Fruit". This song shocked America.

.....

- Rosa parks was arrested. She refused to move and give up her seat.

.....

- She just said no. The police asked her to move.

.....

- Her action gave birth to the bus boycott. It lasted 381 days.

.....

- In 1956, the Supreme Court made a declaration: African American could sit wherever they wanted.

.....