

Countable and uncountable nouns

Choose the correct container and write it down:

a packet/a glass of cheese

a dozen/a loaf of bread

a tube/a jar of toothpaste

a box/a bunch of flowers

a bar/a can of chocolate.

Write down HOW MUCH or HOW MANY:

_____ eggs do you need?

_____ money do we have?

_____ tea is there?

_____ slices of pizza did you eat?

_____ sugar do you take?

_____ people are coming?

_____ water is missing?

_____ children came?

_____ books did you buy?

_____ flowers do you want?

Write down A FEW or A LITTLE:

There are _____ apples.

We want _____ wine.

She bought _____ bananas.

They found _____ cats.

He has _____ time.

My friend needs _____ days.

I want _____ help.

They got _____ money.

He needs _____ luck.

It cost _____ thousands of dollars.

Choose the correct option:

- a) I found a few money.
- b) I found a little money.
- c) I found any money.

- a) They bought a little cats.
- b) They bought a few cats.
- c) They bought any cats.

- a) I saw some man.
- b) I saw any man.
- c) I saw a few of man.

- a) She needs any help.
- b) She needs some help.
- c) She needs a few help.

- a) He read a few book.
- b) He read some book.
- c) He read any book.