

Dialogues between job seekers and employers—listening comprehension

Dialogue 1

Who is calling who ?

Where was the ad posted:

Type of job:

How soon could the jobseeker start ? next at

Tasks to do : tick the right answers

water the plants mow the lawn rake the leaves trim hedges

How much is the job paid? £6.50 an hour £5.50 an hour £7.50 an hour

How is the teenager going to get the employer's address?

The employer is going to send him an email

The employer is going to text him the address on his mobile phone

Dialogue 2

Who is calling who ?

Type of job:

Job experience: Winnie

When and how often would the teen work ? → The employer needs someone

1. once a week twice a week three times a week
2. two afternoons on week days and on Saturday afternoon
 one afternoon on week days and on Sunday afternoon
 one afternoon on week days and on Saturday afternoon

How long would the teenager work each time he goes to the employer's house?

45 minutes an hour (45 minutes plus time to feed the pet)

Tasks to do?

Walk 3 dogs to the park walk 1 dog to the park walk 1 dog and then feed it

How much is the job paid? £6.50 an hour £5.50 an hour £6 an hour

Details about the pet ?

It's a poodle (= un caniche). His name is _____ and he is _____ because he is only years old.

Dialogue 3

Who is calling who ? Tick the right answer

The job seeker is calling the employer

Nobody, it's not a phone call. The employer is knocking at the jobseeker's door.

Nobody, it's not a phone call. The jobseeker is knocking at the employer's door.

Type of job:

Job experience: Michael

How often would the teen work ? —>

How long would the teenager work each time he goes to the employer's house?

45 minutes

an hour

an hour and a half

How soon could the jobseeker start ? next at