

EJÉRCITO NACIONAL
COLEGIO DE BACHILLERATO PATRIA
ENGLISH – EIGHT GRADE

EFQM

SPEAKING AND LISTENING QUESTIONS

1. How was the example of the man who lost his fingers in an accident an effective way to open this film?

2. Michael Moore visits several countries to learn about their systems of healthcare. As you watch the film fill in the chart below and indicate what type of healthcare services are provided in each country.

Country	Healthcare and Social Services Provided
United States
Canada
France
Great Britain
Cuba

3. Which country do you believe gives its citizens the best care? Why?

4. Michael Moore often refers to countries where healthcare is provided by the government as "free". What is the problem with his usage of the word "free" here?

5. Do you believe Michael Moore's visit to different countries provides an accurate analysis of each country's health care system? Explain why or why not.

6. As publicity stunt Moore takes 9/11 firefighter survivors to Cuba to receive healthcare. Do you think this makes his point about American healthcare? Why?

7. Based on your opinion, should all countries provide free universal health care to all its citizens? Why or why not? Explain.

8. Do you agree with Moore's message concerning the U.S. healthcare system and universal healthcare? Explain your position.

9. Do you think Americans should be aware about the Cuban healthcare system? Or is this a radical idea? Explain.

10. Provide a 3-4 sentence film review that explains your opinion about the documentary.