

COMPLETE THE SENTENCES. CHOOSE WORDS FROM THE BOX.

break	bread	bucks	pincher	peanuts	spoon	dime
drain	dues	up	time	on	gold	talk	grow
burn	struck (=past tense of strike)			bacon	bottom	foot

- Because they made us wait so long for our table, drinks were _____ the house.
- The job paid _____ but he had to accept it so he could pay the rent.
- He put in the hours and paid his _____ and was rewarded with a big promotion at work.
- He always brings his own lunch since he is the biggest penny _____ I know.
- To boost morale, the boss picked _____ the tab for everybody's lunch.
- Buying all those silly toys is like pouring money down the _____.
- I told my son that I would _____ the bill for his college education as long as his grades are good.
- I recovered from my illness and feel like a million _____ now.
- I like to get to work early each day, since _____ is money.
- He is an asset to the company and is certainly worth his weight in _____.
- I know the car is expensive but it's not going to _____ the bank.
- Her husband was the one to bring home the _____ and he often kept long hours at work.
- She never had to work a day in her life: she was born with a silver _____ in her mouth.
- I'd bet my _____ dollar Jim will have a crazy excuse for being late again.
- His new company needs to do well because it's his _____ and butter.
- We can't compete against the big companies. Money always _____.
- I told her not to be upset since guys like him are a _____ a dozen.
- She told her son that he couldn't have the new game since money doesn't _____ on trees.
- Thanks to her rich husband she has money to _____ and is always shopping at fancy boutiques.
- She _____ it rich when she won millions on the lottery.

