

SHOW RESPECT TO EVERYONE.

1 PETER 2:17

Religious Studies: Notes

Theme: Respect

The word, "respect" means a high or special regard; a relation or reference to a particular thing or situation.

To have respect for authority is to honour or to submit to those in leadership positions. Such persons include your parents, principals, teachers, elders, law enforcement agents, prefects etc.

Many biblical characters demonstrated respect for authority. They include David and Paul.

- David respected King Saul as his leader even though King Saul wanted to kill him. Even when God rejected Saul as king, David still respected him.
- In the New Testament, Paul sent Onesimus, a runaway slave, back to his owner, Philemon. Paul respected the authority of Philemon.

Individuals should demonstrate respect for persons in authority.

- Children should demonstrate respect by obeying rules at home and in school.
- Adults should demonstrate respect by obeying laws in the work place and in the community.

All persons should use good manners to demonstrate respect.
