

punished	fine	offend	Capital punishment	murders
on probation	trespassing	commit crimes	assault and battery	jail

Those responsible for these crimes must be brought to court and _____.

Do you think people can _____ for good reason?

I hope this is a public footpath and we're not _____ on someone's land.

The maximum penalty for the offence is a $1,000 _____.

The judge put him _____ for two years.

When criminals _____ many times, they get a heavier punishment.

He's stayed out of trouble since he was released from _____ last year.

In most jurisdictions, _____ is a crime committed when a person attempts to physically harm another person.

_____ refers to the death penalty, or the sentencing of an individual for committing a serious crime.

There were three _____ in the town last year.