How to impress at a job interview

Are you looking for an ¹ interesting job? Or maybe you've found one already? As you probably know, the job market today is very ² _____. So, if you're lucky enough to be interviewed, it's ³ _____ to consider how you can make the best impression.
First, make sure you arrive on time. If you're ⁴ _____ on public transport, make allowances for delays and cancellations. Secondly, be careful how you look. Even if the employer is looking for someone ⁵ _____, it's best to avoid looking too way-out, like having a Mohawk haircut! Next, memorise what you have written on your resume.
You'll look rather ⁶ _____ if you can't remember what you said there.
Your employer will want you to be ⁷ _____ so it's important to answer questions fully. Don't make long speeches though. And finally, don't worry!
Interviews may sound scary, but if you prepare well, they can turn into really ⁸ _____ experiences.

A Rewarding Career

I have ¹ ____ idea what to do when I leave school. I envy people who know exactly what career they want to follow from an early life. If you have a definite ² ____ – for the religious life, for example, or for nursing – that must be great. My mom always wanted to be a nurse because it was a job that would ³ ____ her help others. She works in a busy emergency department so she sees people who are ⁴ ____ all sorts of trouble. This means she is ⁵ ____ a lot of pressure all day. She's ⁶ ____ her feet all day, too – she must walk several kilometres every week! I don't know how she ⁷ ____ to keep going, but she does – and she never complains, either! Nurses can retire at the age of sixty in my country, but I bet Mum ⁸ ____ up working until she's seventy.
