

Present simple and present continuous questions

Up until now, we have seen different ways of asking questions with the present simple and present continuous tense.

We have seen and practised different ways of asking questions depending on what we want to ask. Look at the following table to remind you of what we have seen so far:

Present simple questions

Present simple questions with Verb "to be"	Present simple questions with Wh words and verb "to be"	Present simple questions with "Do" & "Does"	Present simple questions with Wh words and "do" & "does".
Are you English? Is he from Spain? Are they tired?	Where is he from? Why are they sad? How are you?	Do you speak Russian? Does he like pizza? Do they play tennis?	Where do they live? When does she usually get up? What do you do?
Answers: Yes, I am. No, he isn't. Yes, they are.	Answers: He is from France. They are sad because there is no school. I am great!	Answers: Yes, I do. Yes, he does. No, they don't.	Answers: They live in Málaga She usually gets up at 7 am. I am a teacher.

Present continuous questions

Present continuous questions with Verb "to be"	Present continuous questions with Wh words and verb "to be"	 Present continuous questions with "Do" & "Does"	 Present continuous questions with Wh words and "do" & "does".
Are you reading? Is he watching T.V? Are they studying?	Where is he going? Why are they singing? What is she writing?
Answers: Yes, I am. No, he isn't. Yes, they are.	Answers: He is going to Paris. They are singing because they are happy. She is writing a poem.

Exercise 1. Present simple questions

Write present simple questions with the words given. Look at the table to help you.

1. Where / Pablo?

Where is Pablo?

2. Why / they / tired?

3. you / German?

4. Cayetana / go to bed?

5. he / basketball?

6. they / drink / tea?

7. Where / Cayetana?

8. How old / she ?

9. How / you ?

10. he / live?

Exercise 2. Present continuous questions

Write present continuous questions with the words given. Change the verb in brackets. Look at the table to help you.

1. What / Elena / (do) ?

What is Elena doing? _____

2. Where / Paco / (go) ?

3. M^a Paz / Marta / (sleep) / at the moment?

4. Why / the teacher / (shout) ?

5. Cristina / Alejandra / (come) / Madrid / this week ?

6. How / José / (travel) / London / tomorrow morning?

7. What / Santiago / (say) / Roberto / ?

8. How / you / (feel) / today / ?

9. Listen! Who / (make) / horrible noise / ?

10. It smells delicious! your sister / (cook) / ?

