Zhafirah : Hello, Dianty! How are things? How's life?

Dianty : Hi, Zha! Alhamdulillah, I'm good, how about you?

Zhafirah : Alhamdulillah, I'm great too. So, where have you been during the Eid Al-Adha?

Dianty : During Eid Al-Adha, I _____ to my grandfather's house and _____ my Eid Al-Adha holiday there.

Zhafirah : It seems fun! Can you tell me your experience during the Eid Al-Adha holiday there?

Dianty : Sure, Zha. I went to my grandfather's house the day before the celebration of Eid Al-Adha. I _____ there overnight. The next day, I _____ up at 5.00 am to pray for Adha. After I finished my pray Adha, my family slaughtered a Qurban animal next to my grandfather's house. I watched the slaughtering procession beside my mother. After that, my mother and aunt _____ curry from the Qurban meat. At noon, my family and I ate the curry heartily. At 6 pm in the evening, my family and I went back to our house.

Zhafirah : Wow, that's very fun!

Dianty : Yeah, how about you, Zha?

Zhafirah : I spent my Eid Al-Adha holiday at home, Di. In the morning, I _____ Adha at the mosque. Then I watched the Qurban slaughter procession there. After that, my family _____ Qurban meat from the mosque and my mother cooked meat soup from it. After the meat soup was _____, my family and I ate it while watching our favorite movie.

Dianty : It's very fun, Zha! It's great to celebrate Eid Al-Adha with our loved ones. By the way, Zha, I have to go to the library now, Miss Mutia asked me to go there to meet her. I'm sorry.

Zhafirah : It's totally fine, Di, we can catch up later. See you soon!
