

DRAWING CONCLUSION

Drawing conclusions means figuring something out for yourself. To draw conclusions, you need to think about what makes the most sense.

HEALTHY EATING HABITS

Here are some examples of things you can figure out for yourself. Select the correct box for the conclusion that makes the most sense.

1. Paulina took her sneakers and a water bottle out of her backpack. This probably means that:

- ☐ Paulina is going out to sleep.
- ☐ Paulina is going to exercise.

2. Charlie went to the park and threw a tennis ball across the yard and yelled, "Fetch, Pebbles!" This probably means that:

- ☐ Charlie is playing with his dog.
- ☐ Charlie is playing on the swings.

3. Kim blew out the candles on the chocolate cake. This probably means that:

- ☐ It is Kim's birthday.
- ☐ It is Christmas morning.

4. Kelly ate too much candy and stayed home the next day from school, even though there was a play rehearsal that day. This probably means that:

- ☐ It is summer vacation.
- ☐ Kelly is sick.

5. Carl filled a bag with whole wheat bread, slices of cheese, sweet peppers, lettuce and tomatoes and cucumbers to take to the picnic. This probably means that:

- ☐ Carl is going to make sandwiches.
- ☐ Carl is going to make a pizza.

6. Laura sat down beside her friend Allie and opened her lunchbox filled with a chicken salad, yogurt and baby carrots. This is probably because:

☐ Laura is going to draw a picture.

☐ Laura is going to eat lunch.

☐ Laura is going to take a nap.

7. Jan cooked dinner and put too much salt in the food. His sisters left back a lot of food in their plates. This is probably because:

☐ They wanted fried chicken.

☐ The food was too salty.

☐ They all loved the food and saved some for later.

8. The students sat in a circle on the floor, and the teacher opened a book about healthy eating. This is probably because:

☐ The teacher is going to read a story.

☐ The students are getting ready for recess.

☐ It is time for lunch.

9. Marco's dad ate his boiled eggs and toast for breakfast then he picked up his briefcase and went out to the car. This is probably because:

☐ Marco's dad is staying home from work that day.

☐ Marco's dad is not feeling well.

☐ Marco's dad is leaving for work.

10. Everyday Nina drinks eight glasses of water. One day the pretty glass cup filled with water slipped out of Nina's hand, and there was a loud crashing sound. This is probably because:

☐ The glass cup broke.

☐ The cup was made of plastic.

☐ Nina dropped a glass plate.
