2 Complete the text with the correct future form of the words in brackets.

Hi Paul,

Just a quick email to <sup>0</sup>tell (tell) you my plans. My flight <sup>1</sup> _____ (arrive) at Gatwick tomorrow at 3 p.m., and I <sup>2</sup> _____ (probably / take) the Tube to central London. I <sup>3</sup> _____ (check in) at my hotel first, and then I <sup>4</sup> _____ (meet) the manager of the restaurant at six o'clock. If you <sup>5</sup> _____ (be) free at 7:30 or so, we can meet up at Café Mez for a coffee. Oh, I just remembered that I printed out that information about the cooking course you asked for, so I <sup>6</sup> _____ (put) it in my bag right now. One more thing. <sup>7</sup> _____ (I / invite) Kelly to meet us at the café? I know she's sorry for arguing with you, and from what I can see she <sup>8</sup> _____ (not cause) any more trouble. Looking forward to seeing you!

Kate
