

FUTURE FORMS

1 Complete the sentences with the correct future form of the verbs in brackets.

- 0 You look busy. Shall I make (I / make) dinner this evening?
- 1 I don't think I _____ (be) at the restaurant at seven. Do you mind waiting for me?
- 2 Our cooking class _____ (start) at six tomorrow evening.
- 3 Kim and I _____ (try) a new restaurant this evening. Do you want to come?
- 4 There's a lot to do next week!
_____ (you / help) me?
- 5 That frying pan is far too hot!
It _____ (burn)!
- 6 I have a feeling that Tim _____ (be) late. Can we start without him?
- 7 If you _____ (arrive) early tomorrow, you can help me set the tables.

2 Complete the text with the correct future form of the words in brackets.

Hi Carl,

I 'm writing (write) to you about the interviews for the new chef. The first candidate is Sophie Bel. Her flight

1 _____ (arrive) at 9 a.m., and I

2 _____ (meet) her at the airport at 9:30. I'm pretty sure there

3 _____ (be) a lot of traffic, so we probably 4 _____ (not be) at the restaurant until eleven. We need some more fresh ingredients for her to cook with.

5 _____ (I / pick up) some things on the way there? Sophie's session

6 _____ (finish) at two and the next candidate, Tom, 7 _____ (come) at 2:30. From what I can see, it 8 _____ (be) a busy day, so get some rest tonight.

See you soon.

Kate