Breakfast in the UK

One of the most famous dishes in the UK is the 'full English' or 'fry-up'. It's made up of eggs, bacon, sausages, baked beans and toast, and can also include black pudding, fried mushrooms and tomatoes! A full English breakfast takes a lot of time to cook and it's quite unhealthy to eat every day, so a lot of British people only eat it at the weekend. On weekdays, most people eat something lighter for breakfast, like a bowl of porridge or breakfast cereal. Another popular choice is to eat buttered toast with jam or marmalade. No English breakfast is complete without a cup of tea!
