

PRACTICE 18.1B Supplying Pronouns in the Nominative Case

Read each sentence. Then, supply a nominative pronoun to complete each sentence.

EXAMPLE Sophia and _____ worked overtime.

ANSWER she

1. Marica and _____ are looking for him at the library.
2. _____ is a warm and beautiful evening.
3. Are _____ sincere in your apology?
4. _____ are longing for a phone call from Jill.
5. The solution to the problem is that she and _____ need to deposit money into the account.
6. _____ is the teacher that I highly respect.
7. You understand that _____ is absent today.
8. My closest friend is _____.
9. I know that _____ will travel with me.
10. The leaders of the band are he and _____.

Practice B Labeling Pronouns

Read each sentence. Then, label the underlined pronoun in each sentence as the subject or predicate nominative.

EXAMPLE: They will not go with the class the trip.

ANSWER: Subject

1. They are the new owners the Store.
2. The candidates will be she and Jed.
3. The most helpful neighbor was he.
4. You are the best person for the job.
5. The best person for job is you.
6. The office lost the envelope that I was waiting for.
7. It was me most interesting book about that topic.
8. He will probably win the contest.
9. The judges are Ms. Smith and I.
10. We are the talented artists in the class.