A LIFE OF A YOUTUBER

Do funny or interesting things happen to you a lot? Do you think hundreds of thousands of people will want to listen to you tell stories about your life? Then you could become another YouTube star, like Jessii Vee is. 8.1. ____ And she turns her life into her work, six days a week. 'I spend the whole Sunday coming up with ideas for videos for the following week,' says Jessii. 'Then, on Monday, I wake up early to start making them. Usually, a video takes just over an hour to produce. 8.2. ____ Then, from Tuesday to Friday, I edit them.'

Jessii also spends a few hours a week writing to her fans. Sometimes she meets them because people recognise her when she goes out. 'The other day I went to buy coffee,' she says, '8.3. ____ She left the coffee shop to meet me outside to take pictures. It always makes me happy to see my fans are happy.'

Jessii has some advice about what kind of videos to make. 'Be yourself. Don't change to try to make people like you. 'Make videos about something you love and your channel will grow fast, believe me!'

adapted from <https://learnenglishteens.britishcouncil.org>

- A. I post all my videos every Monday so my fans can watch them at the beginning of the week.
- B. More than 150 million people watch her videos of funny stories about herself.
- C. The girl serving me almost dropped it when she saw who I was.
- D. I try to make around five, so it takes most of my day.

A.	Ms. Caulfield, our Drama teacher, would like to invite all students interested in theatre to a London Drama Day Trip. Your first visit is to National Theatre, where you'll have a chance to watch a play and see the backstage. After that, you'll visit the famous Globe Theatre, where you'll learn about the history of that place during an exciting guided tour.
B.	Who says that museums are boring? Mr. Smith, our History teacher, will change your view forever on London Most Popular Museums day. You'll explore the Science Museum for fun and exciting experiments, Natural History Museum, where you'll learn about the Earth and, Royal Navy ship HMS Belfast, where you'll see how life was like on-board and learn more about World War 2.
C.	Ms. Barnes, our P.E. teacher, believes that there's no better way to discover London than on a walking tour. That's why she'd like to invite you on a walk among London's most popular tourist attractions, such as Houses of Parliament, Big Ben, Buckingham Palace and the Tower of London. You'll see all those places from the outside only, but it's a great chance to take fantastic photos and burn some calories at the same time.

9.1.	Students need to be quite fit to take part in this trip.
9.2.	Students won't go inside any building during this trip.
9.3.	This trip lets students see three different interesting places.
9.4.	This trip is perfect for students who dream about becoming actors.
