

Modal verbs

Choose the correct option:

I hate bananas. I can/can't eat them!

They are lazy. They must/mustn't work harder.

Children should/shoudn't drink alcohol.

I am good at sports. I can/can't run very fast.

You must/mustn't listen to me. It's important.

We should/shouldn't help him. He needs us.

You should/shouldn't do that. You'll make them angry if you do.

Can/can't you come with us, please?

You must/mustn't smoke here!

My friend can/can't speak English at all.

Choose the correct option:

- a) I'm late. I must go now.
- b) I'm late. I can go now.
- c) I'm late. I mustn't go now.

- a) They should do that. It is not possible.
- b) They can do that. It is not possible.
- c) They shouldn't do that. It is not possible.

- a) We like you. You can't come with us.
- b) We like you. You mustn't come with us.
- c) We like you. You can come with us.

- a) Must you help me?
- b) Can you help me?
- c) Should you help me?

- a) My sister is terrible. She can cook at all.
- b) My sister is terrible. She must cook at all.
- c) My sister is terrible. She can't cook at all.