

Read the dialog. Then complete the text with logical words or phrases from the box.

actually	did you	it to you	them
are you going to	heard	mean	they don't go
cute	I thought	read	we are going to g

Joshua: what are you thinking about?

Christopher: I'm thinking about a book I just read. It's called Death in the afternoon.

Joshua: Is it a mystery novel?

Christopher: No, it's not even a novel. It's a book about about bullfighting.

Joshua: yuk. That's so _____

Christopher: Not really, I saw my first bullfight two years ago. _____ it was fascinating. It's not really a sport. It's more like a dance.

Joshua: I can't believe you _____ like bullfights.

Christopher: The problem with bullfights is, everybody has an opinion abouty them, but _____ to them. _____ read Death in the afternoon if I give it to you?

Joshua: Yeah, sure.

Christopher: Also, _____ to Sevilla on a business trip next October. Maybe we can see a corrida together. I can explain _____, so you understand what you see.

Joshua: Well, I'm going to read the book fist.

