

PRAGUE

Prague is _____ capital of _____ Czech Republic. It's also _____ largest city in the country. Prague is home to about 1.3 million people.

Prague lies on _____ Vltava river and it offers _____ number of interesting places to see and visit.

Tourists usually start with a visit to _____ Prague Castle, one of _____ largest castle complexes in the world. You can also visit _____ Golden Lane, _____ short street with tiny houses, while there.

From _____ castle you can go down to _____ Lesser Town Square which leads to another Prague's famous landmark, _____ Charles Bridge. _____ bridge was built in 1357 and at that time it was _____ only bridge across _____ river.

When you cross _____ river you emerge in the Old Town and only a short walk will take you to _____ Old Town Square with its famous Astronomical Clock.

Another famous square is called _____ Wenceslas Square. There is _____ Statue of St. Wenceslas and _____ National Museum in the upper part of _____ square.

When you're tired of historical monuments, you can visit _____ Dancing House on the banks of _____ Vltava river. The building symbolises _____ dancing couple. Another interesting place is _____ Žižkov Television Tower, _____ highest building in Prague

There are also lots of places to go when you get tired and you just want to relax. _____ best place to go is _____ Royal Game Reserve (Stromovka) where you can play sports, go for _____ walk or enjoy picnics. Another place to go is _____ Petřín Lookout Tower on Petřín Hill or _____ Prague Zoo, one of _____ best zoos in the world.

Prague is also _____ great cultural place. You can go to see _____ play in many theatres. _____ most famous one is _____ National Theatre but there are more theatres such as _____ Estates Theatre or State Opera.