1 Golden Days

If you're looking for something easy to read on holiday, this is it. Set in the north of England in the 1920s, it's a sweet story about ambition and love. This is K. Macdonald's second novel. Like the first one, it shows a rich imagination and a talent for storytelling

2 The Muddy Road

Can you imagine being told you will never walk again? A true story about determination in a personal battle with 21st century medicine. Positive attitude and sense of humour will not leave you indifferent.

3 The Deep

This is a book full of surprises. A story of a group of friends who set out in 1820 to find the Loch Ness Monster and disappear. You will have to read the book to find out what happened but be prepared for a race through space and time!
