

Verb, Comparative and Superlative Review

Match the term on the left with its example on the right. Type the letter of the example next to the term.

- | | |
|---|----------------------------|
| ___ Past tense negative auxiliary | A. More important |
| ___ Present continuous verb | B. Seldom |
| ___ Future question | C. Don't |
| ___ Frequency adverb | D. "ed" |
| ___ 3 rd person singular negative "to be" verb in past | E. Am not going to play |
| ___ Proper adjective | F. Fixes |
| ___ Non-continuous verb | G. Do you read much |
| ___ Adverb | H. Wasn't |
| ___ Prepositional phrase | I. Explained |
| ___ 1 st person singular future with "going" negative | J. In the garden |
| ___ Regular past tense verb ending | K. Japanese |
| ___ Superlative one-syllable adjective | L. Are they leaving |
| ___ 3 rd person plural "to be" verb in past tense | M. Beautifull |
| ___ Past tense regular adjective that's not used as a verb | N. Patiently |
| ___ Present continuous tense question | O. Were |
| ___ Comparative adverb | P. More ironically |
| ___ 6-syllable word | Q. The kindest |
| ___ Negative future auxiliary | R. Congratulatory |
| ___ Superlative 3-syllable adjective | S. Didn't |
| ___ Present tense question | T. Know |
| ___ Superlative adverb | U. More easy |
| ___ 1 st person singular or plural negative auxiliary in present tense | V. Is she going to study |
| ___ Past tense regular action verb | W. The most elegant |
| ___ Incorrect comparative adjective | X. Does |
| ___ 3 rd person singular verb in present tense | Y. Calmer |
| ___ Comparative one-syllable adjective | Z. Am playing |
| ___ Misspelled adjective | AA. The most cooperatively |
| ___ Comparative 3-syllable adjective | BB. Sophisticated |
| ___ 3 rd person singular present tense auxiliary | CC. Won't |
| ___ Comparative 2-syllable adjective | DD. More handsome |