

• Question 1 : Match each term to its definition.

Industrial Revolution

the cultivation of animals, plants and other life forms for food, textile fiber, raw material, medicinal and other products used to sustain life.

Economy

natural substances that are processed to make useful things.

Agriculture

the rapid social and economic development methods of production in Europe and the United States.

Livestock

money earned from work or business.

Industry

domesticated animals raised in an agricultural setting to produce food, fiber and labor which makes profit.

Raw materials

the system by which goods and services are produced, sold and bought in a country.

Income

the production of goods and services.