

Correction of Mistakes.

There is a mistake in each sentence.

Analyse the part of the sentence in underlined italics and click the words, if these words (before the number) should be corrected.

1. I can't tell you (1) anything now, but I'll be able to do (2) it when you will come (3) to me the day after tomorrow. (4)
2. I don't think that you can give (1) much useful information, (2) but a few news (3) you've got can be of interest to us. (4)
3. We've got a lot of new books (1) on various topics, but we couldn't find anything (2) on the topic we need. You won't (3) be able to find anything too. (4)
4. Could you bring me any (1) water to drink? (2) I've been walking for seven hours (3) and I'm terribly thirsty. (4)
5. This house is largest (1) of all we've seen. I don't think we can find any (2) house larger than (3) this one. So, let's finish searching. (4)
6. When we entered the room, (1) we saw Michael to sit (2) in the armchair. He was watching (3) TV. We didn't want to disturb (4) him, but suddenly noticed that he had fallen asleep.
7. Her satin old red (1) dress was lying (2) on the bed. It was so dirty (3) that we thought (4) that she had been specially working in it for a week or two.
8. Their little daughter was (1) a cute baby. She was so nice (2) girl that everyone who came to (3) their house couldn't help playing with her for some time. (4)
9. I'll be waiting for (1) you at five near the house of the Smiths. (2) Please, don't be late (3) or I'll have to leave (4) without you.
10. "Help me with (1) my new dress. I want to cut (2) it shorter. (3) " — " OK, Let's meet at your place at about seven, don't we? (4) "

