

Addition and subtraction word problem

Name: _____

It is a hot sunny day. There are 14 children in the swimming pool. 7 are boy. How many girls are in the pool?

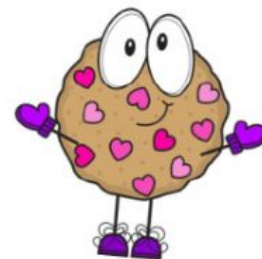

The farmer went to feed the horses. He gave them 15 apples. The horses ate 10 apples. How many apples are left.

9 butterflies were sitting on yellow flowers in the garden. The rest of the butterflies were sitting on red flowers. There were 17 butterflies altogether. How many butterflies were on red flowers.

Meg was very hungry when she got home from school! She saw a plate on the table with 12 cookies. She got herself a glass of milk and ate 3 cookies. How many cookies are left?

There were 16 bees in the hive. A boy hit the hive with a ball. 6 bees flew out to chase the boy away. How many bees were left in the hive?

The kids on Sam's team were hot after a game. Sam's mother bought 13 popsicles for the team. The kids ate 9 popsicles. How many popsicles were left?

