Name: _____ Class: _____

Living Things and Their Habitats

Land and water support living things in _____ ways. Diversity is how many _____ plants and animals live in a place.

Adaptations are characteristics of a living thing to help it survive in its habitat. For example, _____ have gills. Gills help fish _____ underwater. The fish in the picture live in a coral reef. The fish is colorful. Color is an adaptation. It helps the fish _____.

A habitat that has lots of diversity has _____.

a no plants and animals.

b few plants and animals.

c many plants and animals.

A habitat with little diversity has _____.

a no plants and animals.

b few plants and animals.

c many plants and animals.

Camouflage helps animals hide with color. Color is _____.

a a gill

b an adaptation

c a coral reef

The rainforest has many plants and animals. The rainforest has lots of diversity. true | false

The desert has few plants and animals. The desert has lots of diversity. true | false