

What's the matter?

Vocabulary

1. Listen, repeat and write the meaning. (Use the Google Translator)

What's the matter?

My back hurts.
I've got a backache.

My head hurts.
I've got a headache.

My throat hurts.
I've got a sore throat.

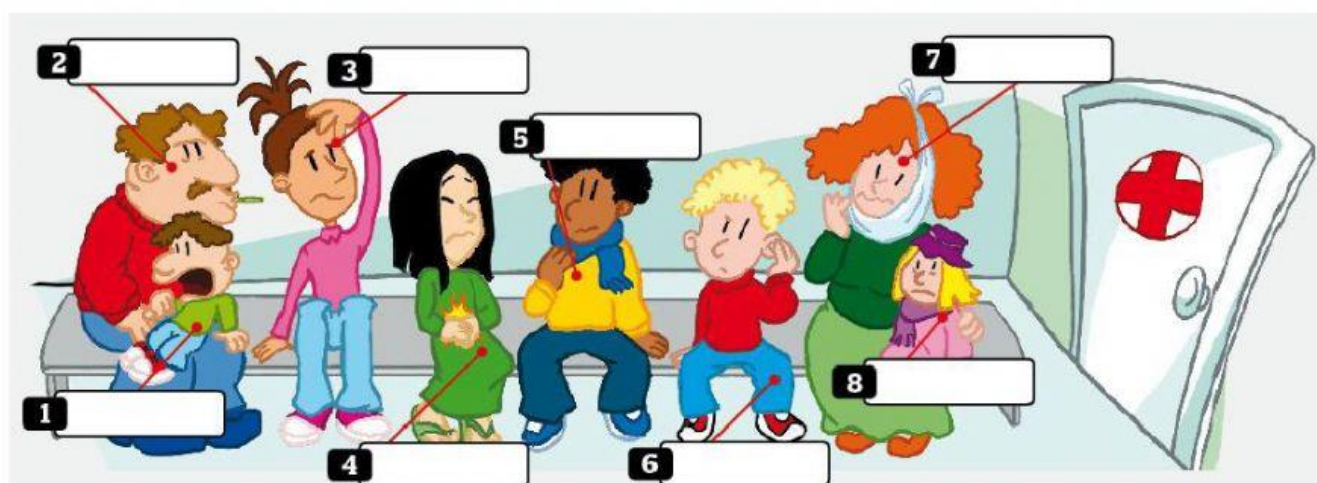

My stomach hurts.
I've got a stomach ache.

My tooth hurts.
I've got toothache.

Maybe I've got the flu, too.

Listen	Repeat	Spanish
My back hurts. I've got a backache.		Me duele la espalda. Tengo dolor de espalda.
My head hurts. I've got a headache.
My throat hurts. I've got a sore throat.
My stomach hurts. I've got a stomach ache.
My tooth hurts. I've got a toothache.
Maybe I've got the flu, too.

2. Look at the picture. Listen, read and write the names of the people.

- Colin is wearing a red sweater. He has earache.
- Lisa is sitting next to Colin. She has toothache.
- Lisa's daughter, Meg, has the flu.
- Ken is wearing a blue scarf. He has a sore throat.
- Mandy is next to Ken. She has a stomach ache.
- Tony has a son named Roger. Roger has a cough and Tony has a temperature.
- Helen is next to Tony. She has a headache.