

Purpose and Contrast Clauses

Choose the correct word to complete the sentences below: in spite of the fact, despite, although, however, in order not to, to have, so that, so as not to, even though, to.

1. _____ being rich, he is rather unhappy.
2. I know it's good and affordable. _____, I don't like it.
3. It is better to do it slowly _____ make a mistake.
4. _____ he got up late, he arrived in time for the interview
5. I'm studying English _____ more job opportunities.
6. We bought more T-shirts _____ everyone could have one.
7. She noted it down _____ forget.
8. _____ his health isn't too good, he never misses a class.
9. He set his alarm _____ remember to take his medication.
10. _____ that they are good friends, they argue a lot.