

Test

1. Name the continents of the Earth in order of size and give their sizes.

- a)
- b)
- c)
- d)
- e)
- f)

2. Write the number corresponding to the sentences in the correct place.

- | | |
|---|---------------------------------|
| 1. There are 90 - 90 of them. | 5. They are the same length. |
| 2. They are parallel to each other. | 6. There are 180 - 180 of them. |
| 3. They meet at the Poles. | 7. They run from N to S. |
| 4. They get smaller and smaller toward the Poles. | 8. They run from W to E. |

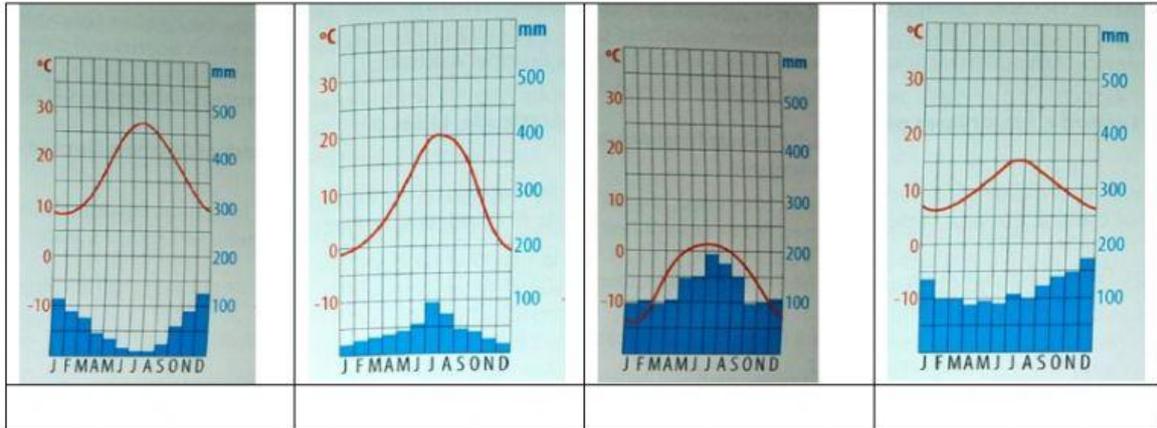

Lines of longitude:

Lines of latitude:

3. Name the borders of Europe.

	1.
	2.
	3.
	4.
	5.
	6.
	7.
	8.

4. Name the climates, then drag and drop the sentences into the correct places.

Cool summers.	Most of the rainfall happens at the beginning of the summer.	Most of the rain falls in the winter.	Mild winters.
Cool summers.	Cold winters.	Great changes in temperature.	Mild winters.
Hot summers.	A lot of rain all year round.	A lot of rain all year round.	Cold winters.
Hot and dry summers.			Small changes in temperature.
Dry periods in summer called draughts.			