

|                                 |                                                                  |
|---------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1. have an accident             | a) it fastens around you when you are travelling in a car        |
| 2. ankle                        | b) the part of the body between the hand and the arm             |
| 3. seatbelt                     | c) to cause an injury to a joint (between the leg and the ankle) |
| 4. slip                         | d) something bad that happens or injures someone                 |
| 5. wrist                        | e) to hurry after someone to catch him                           |
| 6. sprain                       | f) to move out of the correct position                           |
| 7. crash into                   | g) the joint between the foot and the leg                        |
| 8. chase                        | h) quickly or unexpectedly                                       |
| 9. knee                         | i) to feel pain in a part of your body                           |
| 10. suddenly                    | j) the middle joint of the leg                                   |
| 11. believe it or not           | k) asking someone if there is a problem                          |
| 12. hurt                        | l) this is surprising but it is true                             |
| 13. What's the matter with you? | m) a car is involved in an accident                              |

