

The Present Perfect Continuous Tense

Choose the correct answer

They have built built have been building that bridge for over a year and it still isn't finished .

He has gone have been going have gone to the dentist off and on for six months .

He has been ringing has rung have rung

me up all morning .

I have waited has waited have been waiting for an hour and he hasn't turned up yet .

Sarah slept has slept has been sleeping

for 3 hours now

