

Dairy products are a type of food produced from or containing the milk of mammals, most commonly cattle, water buffaloes, goats, sheep, and camels.

Drag and Drop the correct word into the correct picture

Milk

Cheese

Ice cream

Eggnog

Yogurt

Butter

Drag and Drop

Read all the definitions and drag the picture into the correct square.

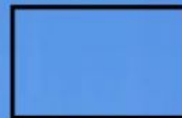

It is a nutrient-rich liquid food produced by the mammary glands of mammals.

It is made from the fat and protein components of milk or cream. It is a semi-solid

It textures and forms by coagulation of the milk protein

It is a sweetened frozen food typically eaten as a snack or dessert.

It is a food produced by bacterial fermentation of milk.

It is an alcoholic drink also homemade using milk, eggs, sugar, and flavorings

