

Exercise

Fill in the missing words in pencil from the dialog.

Complete con lápiz las palabras que faltan del diálogo.

Son: What are your _____?

Father: What do _____ mean?

Son: You know, _____ you _____, your duties.

Father: Oh, you _____ my _____ and home _____?

Son: Yes, _____ right.

Father: I _____ work every day. I also _____ with the children. I _____ to play sports and to do _____. I also hope to _____ English.

Son: So some are _____ that you have to do, and others are _____ that you like to do.

Father: _____, I think _____ are usually _____ you have to do.

>Role-play with learners by having them act out something that a person has to do as a responsibility or likes to do. Then ask the learners to describe in full sentences as follows:

_____ is one of his responsibilities or _____ likes to _____.

From the dialog, circle the correct word.

Del diálogo, trace un círculo alrededor de la palabra correcta.

1. What are (you / your) responsibilities?
2. What do (you / your) mean?
3. You (now / know), things you (have / half) to do, your duties.
4. Oh, you (men / mean) my work (an / and) home responsibilities.
5. Yes, that's (right / write).
6. I have to work every day. I have to help (with / which) the children. I also (lick / like) to play sports, to do hobbies, and I (hop / hope) to learn English.
7. (So / Sew), some (or / are) responsibilities that you have to do, and others are activities (that / those) you like to do.
8. Yes, I (think / thing) responsibilities are things you have to do.

Respond to the statements or questions in pencil from the dialog.

Responda a las afirmaciones o preguntas del diálogo con lápiz.

What are your responsibilities? I have to

