

1. Modal verbs for evaluating.

Read the first sentence and the note before the second tense. Complete the second sentence with a proper modal verb and verb forms, depending on if it is a conclusion, expectation, suggestion, criticism or mild criticism.

1. The building was here a year ago, but it isn't there anymore.

Conclusion: It _____ knocked down.

2. The area is ugly and the people living here are unhappy.

Expectation: The city council _____ something to change it.

3. My friend is not here and she promised to arrive on time. I'm not sure why.

Conclusion: She _____ the bus.

4. We didn't know about his health problems, because he hadn't told us anything.

Criticism: He _____ us about his health problems.

5. He didn't visit me when I was ill!

Mild criticism: He _____ me when I was ill.

6. The club is not at all a nice place.

Suggestion: The club _____ renovated as soon as possible.

7. The house looks extremely rich.

Conclusion: It _____ a lot of money.

8. There are lots of people at the main square of the town.

Conclusion: Something interesting _____ happening there, but I'm not sure.

9. I haven't done as much revision before the test as I could.

Criticism: I _____ more revision before the test.

10. I think something funny happened. Everybody is laughing.

Conclusion: Something funny _____ because everybody is laughing.

2. Modals for speculating. Decide if these sentences are about the past, present or future and complete them with a proper verb form and a modal verb. Add any necessary words.

1. Helen _____ at work yesterday because I saw her (BE).

2. I _____ you the money. Why didn't you ask me (LEND)

3. I'm sorry but I _____ you tomorrow because I have to take my piglet to the vet. (visit)

4. That's a lie! I _____ her about the surprise, because I didn't know anything about it! (tell)

5. She _____ like a dolphin when she was a child (swim)
6. Mrs Chisel bought a new car ! - She _____ the lottery (WIN).
7. It _____ Sam I saw in the supermarket yesterday, but I'm not sure about it (BE).
8. I can't find my umbrella. I _____ in the office, but I'm not sure. (LEAVE)
9. She said something about going to a park, so she _____ there. (go)
10. You were stupid to go hiking in the mountains without a map. You _____. (get lost)

3. Complete these sentences with correct adjectives describing feelings or emotions.

1. If something reminds you of the past in a positive way, it is.....
2. If a thing that you see makes you think deeply and seriously, it is.....
3. If the thing you see of experience affects your emotions in a powerful way, it is
4. A thing which is extremely impressive and grand, it is.....
5. If something makes you realise that you are less important, worse than you thought it is
6. If a thing makes you feel very sad or angry, you become.....
7. If what you see takes your breath away, it is.....
8. If a place looks really grand, regal, superb you can say it is.....

4. Complete these sentences with correct adjectives or verbs created from prefixes over- and under- and the roots given in the table below. There may be too many roots given. You may need to change the words.

PRICE	VALUE	RUN	COME	ESTIMATE	AWE	RATE	TAKE	FUND	STATE	GO
-------	-------	-----	------	----------	-----	------	------	------	-------	----

1. I feel demotivated by my salary. I'm sure I'm
2. In my opinion their new album is absolutely..... It's not as good as all the previous ones.
3. Most museums are.....by the government, so they have no money for new exhibits.
4. Why do youyour house so much? You must ask more money for it! It's a great house!
5. Sometimes I feel sheher own abilities. She's a lot smarter than she claims.
6. When he was given the present, he became.....with joy.
7. Finally the small companies were.....by the huge corporation.
8. The royal room was so impressive, we were absolutely.....by its richness.