

Parts of a computer

MATCHING

Matching: match the words to the correct description

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| 1 software <input type="checkbox"/>                             | a the brain of the computer   |
| 2 peripherals <input type="checkbox"/>                          | b physical parts that make up a computer system                             |
| 3 main memory <input type="checkbox"/>                          | c programs which can be used on a particular computer system                |
| 4 hard drive (also known as hard disk) <input type="checkbox"/> | d the information which is presented to the computer                        |
| 5 hardware <input type="checkbox"/> B                           | e results produced by a computer  |
| 6 input <input type="checkbox"/>                                | f input devices attached to the CPU   |
| 7 ports <input type="checkbox"/>                                | g section that holds programs and data while they are executed or processed |
| 8 output <input type="checkbox"/>                               | h magnetic device used to store information                                 |
| 9 central processing unit (CPU) <input type="checkbox"/>        | i sockets into which an external device may be connected                    |

Listen to a conversation about buying a computer and decide if the sentences are TRUE or FALSE

- |  |   |   |
|--|---|---|
| 1- Power depends on speed and capacity                                       | T | F |
| 2- The speed of the processor refers to how fast the computer processes data | T | F |
| 3- The speed of the computer doesn't depend on the processor                 | T | F |
| 4- The capacity of the computer is measured in Giga Hertz                    | T | F |
| 5- The seller recommends looking for high numbers to find a better computer  | T | F |