

What are they wearing?

I. What are they wearing? Write He or She. Then drag the name to the right sentence.

1. ___ is wearing a red T-shirt. Name: _____
2. ___ is wearing striped T-shirt and blue shorts. _____
3. ___ is wearing a blue skirt and white socks. _____
4. ___ is wearing grey trousers. _____
5. ___ is wearing a green cap. _____
6. ___ is wearing brown boots and a brown hat. _____
7. ___ is wearing an orange sweater and blue jeans. _____

II. Correct the sentences.

Liz

Tom

Susan

Chris

Jenny

James

1. Liz is wearing a red skirt and black socks.

No, she is wearing _____.

2. Tom is wearing a red shirt, green jeans and boots.

No, he is wearing _____ and boots.

3. Susan is wearing a purple jacket, a white jacket and black shoes.

No, she is wearing _____.

4. Chris is wearing a black jumper, red shorts and boots.

No, he is wearing _____.

5. Jenny is wearing blue leggings and red shoes.

No, she is wearing a _____.

6. James is wearing a green and white coat, black trainers and brown shorts.

No, he is wearing _____ and brown shorts.

II. Put the verbs in brackets in the correct form, using, going to.

0. That man at the service counter is going to help (help) you.
1. Tomorrow, Lucy and Tom _____ (drive) to New York.
2. They _____ (fly) to Seattle next week.
3. _____ (you play) football next Monday? Yes, _____.
4. We _____ (give) you a nice present for your birthday.
5. Tom _____ (not go) to London.
6. We _____ (buy) a new car next month.
7. I _____ (wear) blue shoes.
8. _____ (Matt cook) dinner? Yes, _____.
9. _____ (they leave) the house? No, _____.
10. _____ (she take) a bike ride? Yes, _____.

Well done!