TAG QUESTIONS

Use them at the end of a sentence to ask for confirmation.

For positive statements we usually use negative tag questions (e.g., The cat eats fish, doesn't it?).

For negative statements we usually use positive tag questions (e.g. We aren't late, are we?).

Drag the options.

Maria eats chocolate,	didn't he?
Peter ran five kilometres,	doesn't he?
We will go to the cinema,	isn't it?
The dog is sleeping,	didn't they?
My parents are tired,	can we?
Janet's done her work,	don't you?
You couldn't hear the concert,	does he?
The kids can ride a bike,	was he?
Carlos and Leslie ate a cookie,	could you?
James doesn't drink coffee,	did you?
You love pizza,	can't they?
Anthony plays football,	hasn't she?
You didn't read the book,	aren't they?
We can't drive,	doesn't she?
Mario wasn't sad,	won't we?