

The Passive Voice with the Simple Future and Present Perfect Verb Tenses

Directions: Change each sentence into a passive voice sentence.

Formulas:

Passive Simple Future:	Subject + will + be + past participle + finisher.
Passive Present Perfect:	Subject + has/have + been + past participle.

Passive Simple Future

1. He will take his test tomorrow.

2. She won't bring chips to the party.

3. I will take a road trip this summer.

4. Will the President make a public statement tomorrow?

5. They will publish the book next year.

6. Will she clean her room before school?

7. He will close the office at 5 pm.

8. The painter will paint our house next week.

9. They will probably cancel the concert.

10. Will they open a new restaurant downtown?

Passive Present Perfect

1. He has written many books.

2. Has the surgeon performed the operation?

3. We have just bought a new car.

4. The city has built a new bridge over the river.

5. Everyone has approved her suggestion.

6. He hasn't signed the contract yet.

7. Have the customers paid you yet?

8. She hasn't planted roses in her garden yet.

9. The cat has drunk all the milk.

10. He has broken another window.
