

VERB + OBJECT + VERB

Look at the chart and later complete the exercise.

Verb + object + verb	Verb + object + to + verb
If you use one of these verbs you don't have to use "to" after the object: • LET • MAKE • HAVE • HELP	If you use one of these verbs you have to use "to" after the object: • ASK • INVITE • TELL • REMIND
Example: She'll help you send the email.	Example: My father asked me to help my brother.

Directions: Complete with the correct form:

(verb + object + verb) or (verb + object + to + verb)

1. My parents don't let me _____ (arrive) late at night.
2. My best friend invited me _____ (go) on a holiday with his family.
3. I have to remind my grandma _____ (take) her pills.
4. Please, make the kids _____ (stop) shouting. I can't concentrate!
5. I'll ask my friends _____ (text) me instead of calling, especially during class.
6. The teacher has the students _____ (send) the homework on time.
7. Jenny should help you _____ (clean) all this mess!
8. Mark, tell Julie _____ (check) her voice mail. Tina has been calling all afternoon.
9. Can you remind me _____ (write) back to my teacher?
Otherwise, I'll forget about it.
10. The teacher made us _____ (write) a letter by hand.
11. The volunteers helped the kids _____ (learn) some songs.
12. Our boss invited us _____ (have) dinner for the good results in the last month.