

Idioms Quiz 7-12

on the house	to take steps	under the table
drive him up the wall	down the drain	hit the ceiling

	Idiom	Meaning
1		When something, especially money or work, is wasted or produces no results.
2		To make someone crazy
3		To get something for free that you normally would buy; especially in a bar, hotel, or restaurant
4		To get very angry
5		To begin to take action about something
6		In secret; especially money paid in secret

7. It's time for me _____ to learn English. First, I'll register for ESL classes and I'll have good attendance. I'll also try to practice my English outside of class.
8. Sarah's husband really _____ when he found out that she spent their $1000 rent money on new shoes.
9. My cousin is the owner of the restaurant. Because I'm family, my food was _____ today. I'm glad because the food was really expensive.
10. A lot of undocumented immigrants are paid _____. Their boss will pay them in cash so he doesn't have to report them to the IRS.
11. I paid $700 to take the U.S. citizenship exam, but the money went _____ because I didn't pass the test.
12. Miguel's kids always _____ when they run around the house screaming while he's trying to take a nap.