

LITTLE RED RIDING HOOD

Once upon a time there was (be) a girl living with her mother. She wore (wear) a red riding cloak so everybody called (call) her Red Riding Hood. She lived (live) in a small house in the forest. She had (have) a grandmother and she took (take) food to her every week. She needed (need) to cross the forest to see her grandmother.

One day, she took (take) her basket and went (go) to forest. While she was going she saw (see) a wolf. Wolf asked (ask) : "Where are you going little girl?" "I'm going to visit my grandmother. She had (have) a house at the end of this road. I'm bringing meal to her." The wolf went (go) to the grandma's house and ate (eat) her.

Red riding hood saw (see) beautiful flowers and picked (pick) them for her grandma.

Then she came (come) to home. She saw (see) her grandma in the bed. She felt (feel) strange and said (say) : " Grandma,What big eyes you have! " " All to see you better." " What big ears you have! " "All to hear you better." " What a big nose you have! " " All to smell you better." " What a big mouth you have! " " All to eat you better." Little red riding hood was (be) afraid of the wolf and screamed (scream) loudly.

A woodcutter heard (hear) her scream and ran (run) towards the house. He came (come) in and grabbed (grab) the wolf. Then he made (make) it spit out the grandma. The wolf ran (run) away and never came (come) there again. Little red riding hood and her grandmother lived (live) happily ever after.
