

Geography, Class V
Drought, Famine, Tropical rainforests

Name: _____ Sec: _____ Roll No. _____ Date: _____

Q1. Label the layers of rainforests.

Layers of Rainforests

Q2. Which continent has the largest area of rainforests?

Q3. What we call a large area of land where only one crop plant is grown by humans?

Q4. What do we call when forests are cut down?

Q5. Choose the suitable words from the box to complete the sentences:

London	humid	Southern	lungs	fruits	rains	8	Northern
top layer	Equator	brain	water	oxygen	Brazil	20	North Pole

- i. It  a lot in rainforests.
- ii. The plants of the rainforest produce most of the earth's .
- iii. Rainforests can be found in areas along the .
- iv. It is not the name of a layer in a rainforest .
- v. Rainforests act as the Earth's  providing around 40% of the Earth.
- vi. Rainforests have very hot and  climate.
- vii. Amazon Rain forest is located in .
- viii. In 1854, a terrible disease called cholera struck parts of .
- ix. During drought all the surface and ground  dries up.
- x. Only about  % of Earth's land area is covered with rainforests.
- xi. The Amazon Rainforest in South America is home to  % of the world's birds.
- xii. A severe drought hit the  Great Plains of United States.

Q6. Differentiate between Drought and Famine.

Drought	Famine

Q7. Write Two reasons of deforestation.

Q8. Describe Two harmful effects of deforestation.