

Complete with both, all, neither, none or either.

- Yesterday my friend and I went to the new theme park but _____ of us tried the roller coaster. We were too scared.
- Mr and Mrs Davis are my neighbours. _____ of them are teachers and work at my school.
- Yesterday I went shopping with Nancy. We _____ bought new trainers. Nancy's are black and mine are red.
- Tina, Karen and Shirley are sisters. They _____ have got fair hair and green eyes.
- A: Do you want to go to the cinema or stay at home and watch a DVD?
B: _____ is fine. You decide.
- I've got lots of friends but _____ of them like sports. I'm the only one interested in sports.
- Olivia and Tina like going to the cinema together. _____ of them like adventure films.
- She invited all her friends to her party but _____ of them could make it.
- Tom, Mike and Fiona enjoy going to theme parks. They _____ love roller coasters.
- A: Would you like to go on a cruise or go camping in the summer?
B: _____. I don't mind.
- I've got a new red jacket and my sister has got a new green jacket. They're _____ made of leather.
- Jake and Mary can't wait to audition for a part in the school play. _____ of them gets stage fright.