

Solving money word problems

Matt wants to buy a cricket bat. He needs R30.00 to buy the cricket bat. Matt has R5.15 in his pocket. To get more money, he sold his soccer ball for R25.00

1. How much money is in Matt's pocket? R____.____

2. For how much money did he sell his soccer ball? + R____.____

=R____.____

3. Does Matt have enough money to buy the cricket bat? Yes No

Stacy sees these toys on sale in a store window. She buys two toys and pays $10.10. Which 2 toys did she buy?

