

Lesson 2 • How can you measure weather?

① What do these objects measure? Look, circle, and match.

- a A thermometer / anemometer measures temperature.
- b An wind vane / anemometer measures wind speed.
- c A rain gauge / thermometer measures how much rain falls.
- d A anemometer / wind vane shows the direction of the wind.

② What are they? Read and write. Use the words from 1.

- 1 It shows the direction of the wind. Sailors use it when they sail their boat.
- 2 It measures how much rain falls. Farmers use it in their fields. It's important for growing their plants.
- 3 It measures wind speed. Scientists use it to warn people about storms with strong winds.
- 4 It measures temperature. Doctors use it to measure the temperature of a person who is sick.

wind vane

③ Which weather tool? Read and match.

- 1 Is it hot today?
 - 2 Did it rain a lot last night?
 - 3 How windy is it today?
 - 4 Where is the wind coming from?
- a Use an anemometer.
 - b Use a wind vane.
 - c Use a rain gauge.
 - d Use a thermometer.