

Now, let's pay attention to Susan Cane's anecdote of her first day at summer camp. What happened?

Order the events:

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

- Her counselor came up to her and told her that she had to work hard to be more outgoing.
- Her counselor gathered the kids and taught them a chant to instill camp spirit.
- She opened her suitcase with books when she returned home.
- One of her mates told her that she was mellow.
- Susan thought that there was a spelling mistake in the word "rowdy".
- Her mum packed a lot of books in a suitcase.
- She had a vision of herself and the rest of the kids reading together in a cabin.
- She took a book for the second time.
- All the kids chanted the cheer together.
- Susan took a book from her suitcase.